What changes should be made to this class?

- The only change may be to ask students to put their own personal point of view into the subject matter. He was a little repetative with his stories and asking his students to participate in personal stories would reduce this. Besides that I really enjoyed his class and hardly ever missed a class.

- A small assignment before the midterm would be helpful.

- Everything is excellent!

- The class is always the same. All we do is sit and listen to a powerpoint. It gets very boring as the year goes on. I would make less powerpoint and more in class activities.

- More feedback, more than two tests, and that everything doesn’t occur during the second half of the course.

- It would be nice if there could be some points available in the first half of the semester, instead of having all of the tests and papers in the second half. Also, on the tests it would be nice to have the option of choosing one essay question that we didn’t have to answer, because there was always one question that gave me a little trouble.

- I am totally satisfied with this course and the instructor.

- I would find a way to re-instate the homework. The multiple choice questions on the tests that were taken from the books publisher were generally hard to understand. I felt that I had a good understanding of the theories and material provided in this course. The multiple choice questions were confusing and should be reworded if they are to be used for future classes.

- There should be more group or personal tasks. Most classes were in form of lectures. It is kind of boring sometimes.

- I would have liked to have the cases be explained and given to us earlier than they were given. With finals coming up, I felt a little overwhelmed to know that I had such a large paper due so close to the end. Maybe even if it was a week earlier than it was it would have been better.

- Some of the short lectures should be done in one day in order to start the cases earlier in the semester.

- NONE!

- Some kind of incentive to keep up with the readings each week would help

- Have quizzes every week to see if the students are on track.

- Give more tests

- The exams should be broken into smaller portions. This is a lot of totally new information, in my opinion, and it is hard to keep up.
What changes should be made to this class?

- The textbook was awful!! It was like reading Greek. I understood it when the instructor explained it but reading it put me to sleep everytime.

Would you recommend this instructor? Why or why not?

- I wanted this teacher to begin with and he did not disappoint. I will take him again and tell everyone he is a wonderful professor to have.
- I would HIGLY recommend this instructor. I often times left his class feeling like I could accomplish anything I set my mind to. He gives you the tools you need to succeed, and seems to really care about his students.
- Yes, he is very passionate and very knowledgeable. He shows a great interest in the course material and presents it in a way that makes sense to real life applications making the class much more interesting.
- I am inbetween. I liked him some days but others he was a bit too loud.
- Yes, I would, very interesting and you can tell he enjoys teaching. He has a lot of experience and is very helpful in the subject matter.
- Yes. Because he listens to students suggestions for ho to make the class better for them, and works with them to make it happen.
- I definitely would. Dr. Jeffries gives information, ideas and theories that are applicable in business and in personal relationships. He makes it clear that he cares about his students and is open to meeting with them to help them with the class, or with an issue outside of the class. He makes the material for the class easy to understand by giving real life examples and involving the class in his lectures.
- Yes, I definitely recommend this instructor because he is real professional.
- There is only one instructor in this course, so there is no choice
- Definitely. This instructor allowed me to make connections of the subject material to real life situations. A lot of times in taking a course, one ends up asking themselves... why do we need to know this?? I definitely saw why I needed to learn this material. It made a lot more sense and I was a lot more motivated to know that it is stuff I could use in real life.
- Yes, he is a very good instructor that really wants to help us learn.
- You could spend your entire college waiting for a great professor and still not find anyone as charismatic and involved as Frank Jeffries. I’d recommend Dr. Jeffries to anyone who goes to college, anywhere.
- Yes, Prof. Jeffries is great! He is extremely nice, very understanding, funny, makes the class interesting too!
- I would give easy quizzes every week to see what the students have learned, and if they are on track. Sometimes it was not easy to remember what you have taught, just because there is so much to cover, but having a weekly quiz would definately help.
- Yes. Really good professor, Always well prepared.
Would you recommend this instructor? Why or why not?

- Very much so, he is energetic and exciting...he makes you wanna pay attention in class and he truly cares about you succeeding

- I would definitely recommend this instructor. He is an enthusiastic and fun person to learn from. He expects students to put effort in his class and he genuinely wants students to succeed not only in his class, but in the workforce and in life.

- Yes.

Would you recommend this course to others? Why or why not?

- I would recommend this course to others. I recently decided to come back to school after quitting my full time job. He has reinforced some ideas formed while I was working, and was able to apply the course materials to real life situations. The material presented in this course will help anyone who is going into the workforce.

- Yes< of course< because of good instructor)

- I would if they had it with Jeffries,

- No. It was very dry and common sense, but it is required so you have to take it.

- Yes.

- yes

- I would recommend this course to others. I recommended it to my mom! It helps people understand personal and professional relationships, why certain behaviors occur and how to deal with people in a way that both parties will feel good about the interaction/decision.

- Yes, I would. It’s very helpful course.

- yes, this course is very useful for everybody.

- Of course. A lot of times sitting in this course with this instructor, I asked myself questions on why I was in situations in my current life. Also, I found asking, why haven’t I done anything about this? I felt like I was able to gain the knowledge to handle problems better, and to not be afraid to confront situations in my personal life.

- Yes, it is a lot of common sense but it also applies to real life situations.

- Great Class + Great Teacher = Motivated Students. If you want to learn important manager skills and life lessons, take this class.

- Yes, only if you take it with Jeffries, it was an interesting class.

- Yes, because I learned a lot.
Would you recommend this course to others? Why or why not?

- Yes, I believe this course is critical for new employees entering the workforce. It teaches them to get along with others and how to make the best of your job.

- Yes. I did not want to take this course but it was a requirement for my degree. Now that I have taken it I am thankful that I have this knowledge that I do use at my job everyday. It makes me think before I speak and it makes me look at things differently. I may not pass this class but I learned more from it then I thought I would.

- I really enjoyed this class, especially the professor. His class was enjoyable and educational, which seems to be a rare mix. I appreciate his enthusiasm and concern. I’m glad to hear he was recently tenured, and can’t wait to take another class from him in the fall. Give him another raise! In my opinion, he deserves it more than any other teacher I have taken a class from.

- On the syllabus it said the big case was only worth 20 points, but on blackboard it’s 100, so that needs to be changed.

- Great course, great instructor and good material. A+ for this course.

- THANK YOU!!! A lot of times when I was feeling down, especially towards the end of the semester, I looked forward to showing up to class because I knew that you would do something to make me laugh, and relate the material to making me feel better. I almost felt like I was going to a counseling session. Haha. U have made a difference. I love your ties too by the way.

- Great teacher, great class, sometimes gets off topic but otherwise good experience.

- I liked this teacher more than any other professor I’ve had in my 4 years of college education. Thanks for everything Frank.

- Very good instructor.

- If you have a chance to take this class do it. You will learn a lot of important things that could be applied in life as well as business. Good Professor too.

- I am glad I took this course, and am taking other classes from this instructor. I think he is a genuine, moral, honest, and all around great instructor. He deserves a raise!
