What changes would you recommend for the class?

- I really like this teacher, gives relevant real life stories to match the subject matter. The only thing that I think he could improve on is not repeating stories as much. I know that his intentions are good, but sometimes it gets boring hearing the same story over and over again.

- Study guides more like the tests

- I would recommend that Professor Jeffries use more of the terminology in the textbook during his lectures. While taking the midterm, I realized that there were many questions of items that were not present in the class lectures, but could have been found in the book. The same thing occurred when I looked at the final exam essay questions. There were several questions that pertained to items in the book that were never presented in class.

- Well a new book of course. The book was helpful for the final and mid-term. I would have liked a little faster response for the case grade, but it was no trouble.

- I would recommend following the book a little closer; the PowerPoint slides were not always on topic and the tests were all based off of the book.

- I liked the class the book web site was a joke but that was out side of Dr. Jeffies control. No changes maybe a better book that all

- This is the first class I’ve taken at UAA that I would say there is nothing that needs to be changed. Dr. Jeffries really made it an enjoyable experience overall. I guess one thing we could have done more of was in–class case studies. They were very applicable to real life business scenarios.

- The magazine style book I think would be a great idea for this class. The book we have now is alright, but after reading it for awhile it does drag on.

- I think perhaps a few more assignments in between midterms and finals would be helpful to apply the knowledge we learn. I am not asking for busy work, but maybe one or two small to medium graded assignments to encourage students to engage in the material a little deeper.
What changes would you recommend for the class?

- none

- None, the class covered the perfect amount of material, in-class case analysis study, a paper, online review, and tests.

- None

Would you recommend this instructor to others? Why or why not?

- Absolutely, I already have. He is enthusiastic about the topics and very understanding. Keeps everyone engaged during his lectures.

- Yes, the instructor is passionate about the subject.

- I would definitely recommend Professor Jeffries to others. He is a very fun and engaging professor who always seems to be happy every day in the classroom. He demands that his students have fun, and does his best to ensure that happens in class.

- Yes. Dr. Jeffries is very energetic and makes the material fun and easy to understand and apply. He relates real life situations to the theories he teaches. He also keeps the class involved by asking the students questions to keep them in the game so to speak.

- Absolutely! It was apparent that he knew the material. His animated style helped me pay attention in class and encouraged me to attend. I have not had a professor like this in all of the semesters I have under my belt. I don’t expect to get an A in the class, but more importantly, I have been able to alter my perception and thought regarding organizational behavior because of his class and not the subject material alone.

- I would recommend this instructor because he was very enthusiastic and made this less-than-exciting subject fun. He also shared cool pieces of wisdom from time to time and didn’t take himself too seriously.

- I would he likes what he is doing and tries to explain it in a way that everyone can learn form. he has passion about it and teaches just as well

- Yes it was a nice change from most teachers and their methods

- Yee. Very good.

- yes, he made the course fun, i looked forward to lectures

- yes. the presentation was engaging, insightful and inspiring. effective technique that drives home the principles.

- I have already recommended this instructor to people I know who still need to take the class. Dr. Jeffries demonstrates that he cares about our learning experience, and that the material learned is applicable in the real world. In addition, he is very knowledgeable on this subject and effectively used his personal experience to support the topics covered in class.
Would you recommend this instructor to others? Why or why not?

- Yes.

- YES! I will say, hands down Jeffries is the best professor I have ever had. This is because he truly is passionate about his profession, he is passionate about teaching, and really wants his students to succeed. Personal I think it is sad that it has taken me three years to run into a professor like this!

- yes

- Yes, Prof. Jeffries is highly motivational and it reaches the students.

- Yes! Presents the material even if it is naturally boring stuff in a way that makes it interesting

Would you recommend this class to others? Why or why not?

- Yes, it is one of the funnest business classes that I have taken. Can picture the topics being used in many real life situations.

- yes

- I would definitely recommend this course to others. I really like the content within the course, and I believe it has a plethora of applications, not only in business, but in your personal life as well. I found the class to be very interesting all the way though, which is impressive, considering my zombie-like state at 10AM. Overall, I really enjoyed BA 300.

- Yes. If they are a business major. I only took it because it was required but I enjoyed it none the less.

- I recommend this class to others (if they have to take it, of course) but also because it can be much more fun than it appears.

- yes you have to take it for a degree. other then that i still would you learn a lot about how people think and how things work in the business world

- Yes

- See above. Lots of good learning.

- definately, i feel that i learned a lot in this course about how to interact with people. I’ve never had a problem with people before, but this class has given me new ideas of how to handle situations

- yes. applies to everyone who intends to work by providing guidelines for navigating the workplace.

- Yes, for the same reasons stated above. Also, the theories that are taught can be used in life generally not just in relation to business.

- Yes
Would you recommend this class to others? Why or why not?

- Dr. Jeffries is a great professor overall. He really promotes success by offering help and ideas when you need it. He was open for me to come into the office when I needed to. He also answered my emails in a timely manor. He is funny and keeps the material fresh and fun. The case study was a fun project also.

- Great class

- Good friendly learning atmosphere

- great instructor, great class

- thank you.

- I want to thank Dr. Jeffries for his driven, caring, and supportive style of teaching. I wish more professors had some of the values and integrity that he demonstrates.

- Overall, an outstanding class, I think it really set the bar for what classes at a higher learning institution should be like.
